

Mediation Training for OD Consultants

AU/NTL Association in collaboration with ReGeneration Resources is offering a 3 1/2 day training program.

ReGeneration Resources managing change and conflict across generations.

The AU/NTL Association is committed to connecting the AU/NTL Community virtually and physically by promoting professional opportunities to share learning and best practices.

the trainers

Greg Hessel, MSOD is a graduate of the AU/NTL master's program in Organization Development and Principal of ReGeneration Resources, an OD consulting firm specializing in consulting to family businesses and foundations. Greg has also worked in Bosnia, El Salvador and Nicaragua. While in Nicaragua, he was part of a team that successfully negotiated the release of a kidnapped Italian priest. Greg has over 1500 hours of professional training in mediation, facilitation, and training design and is an adjunct faculty member in Woodbury College's Masters in Mediation Program. He is a member of the OD Network, Association for Conflict Resolution, and The National Association for Community Mediation.

Susanne Terry, M.S. is a nationally recognized mediator, facilitator, and consultant working in complex issues in the public and private sector. She teaches in the Masters in Mediation Program of Woodbury College and is adjunct faculty at Vermont Law School. She is known for her exceptional and creative training style. Ms. Terry is also a contract mediator with a number of VT state agencies and has worked closely with these agencies and other organizations in developing their dispute resolution systems. She has worked throughout the United States, Great Britain, Europe, and Africa and is recognized for her thoughtful and creative approach to problem solving.

about the training

OD consultants are skilled in intervening at the individual, group and systems level. This training, designed for OD practitioners, gives a practical tool for intervening at the individual and group levels while also teaching skills in asking non leading questions, problem solving, problem framing, working with emotions, and clarifying that can be applied to coaching, contracting and many other stages of the consulting process. If you have any questions, please give us a call at 800-757-3887.

the training will include

- An interactive participatory method that will cover defining issues to be negotiated, reframing, neutrality, negotiable and non-negotiable issues, the role of the mediator, working with strong emotion, and working with entrenched beliefs.
- Opportunities to practice mediating in coached role-plays.
- Lively discussions and exercises with staff and coaches.
